

Forestry and the Water Environment

Monday 22 November 2010 - 10:30 – 15:30
Inverness Caledonian Thistle FC, Kingsmills Suite,
Tulloch Caledonian Stadium, Stadium Rd, Inverness, Inverness-Shire IV1 1FF

AGENDA

10:30 – 10:50	Arrival and refreshments
10:50 – 11:00	Welcome and Introduction	Chair: John Risby. Conservator – Highland and Islands Conservancy, Forestry Commission Scotland
Setting the national scene
11:00 – 11:30	Forestry and Water Framework Directive	Julia Garritt, Policy Advisor , Species, Water & Soils, Forestry Commission Scotland
11:30 – 12:00	River Basin Management Planning	Rachel Harding- Hill, River Basin Management Plan Coordinator, SEPA
12:00 – 12:10	Discussion
What does WFD mean for forestry at a local level ?
12:10 – 12:30	River Basin Management Planning and forestry at a regional level	Richard Wallace, Development and Operations Advisor, Forestry Commission Scotland
12:30 – 12:50	Forestry and natural heritage sites	Iain Sime, Policy & Advice Manager, Freshwater & Wetlands, Scottish Natural Heritage
12:50 – 13:00	Discussion
13:00 – 13:40	Lunch
13:40 – 14:00	Forestry and Controlled Activities Regulations - diffuse pollution - engineering	Eddie Nicol, Specialist II – Diffuse Pollution SEPA
14:00 – 14:10	Discussion
Reality check - managing sites
14:10 – 14:40	Forestry and fisheries	Simon McKelvey, Director, Cromarty Firth District Salmon Fishery Board & Trust
14:40 – 15:10	Site Planning	Julian Fryer, Area Operations Manager, Forest Enterprise, Inverness Ross and Skye
15:10 – 15:20	Discussion
15:20 – 15:30	Wrap up, close and tea	